

Perth Radiological Clinic Inpatient Billing Policy Guide

Perth Radiological Clinic is a private radiological practice that provides a high quality diagnostic imaging service using only the most up-to-date technology and highly trained medical professionals. We offer a variety of general and specialist procedures and are the preferred radiological provider for a number of public and private hospitals in Perth.

I am a hospital inpatient. Why do I receive an account for services at PRC?

Perth Radiological Clinic is a private radiology practice, contracted to provide the services within the hospital.

How does Perth Radiological Clinic set its private fees?

The private fees are set to reflect the costs, resources, time and effort required to perform the examination and provide a detailed specialist report.

How do I pay my account?

Payment is accepted by cash, EFTPOS, credit card, cheque, money order and BPay payments for your convenience.

Will my private health fund help to cover my PRC accounts?

Many charges for medical imaging and procedures are at least partially covered by private health funds, although fund policies vary. Please contact your individual health fund for further information.

If I hold a Veterans' (DVA) Card will I receive a private account?

Please contact the Department of Veterans' Affairs directly to discuss your eligibility requirements prior to any treatment. Alternatively, please contact our Accounts Department who will assist you with any queries you may have.

Do you charge an After Hours Surcharge?

No.

Who is responsible for the account if I am a worker's compensation or motor vehicle accident patient?

The account remains the responsibility of the patient. Perth Radiological Clinic will send the account directly to the relevant employer or insurance company. If payment is not received within 60 days of your visit, the account will be forwarded to you for payment. All relevant information must be provided at the time of your appointment.

If you have any further queries related to your account, please contact our Accounts Department directly on (08) 9344 5322.
